

This Christmas we want to remind you of the gift that you provide for thousands of people through your prayers and donations. [What follows is a sampling of e-mails (translated) we've received lately.]

May God bless this ministry and the instruments of God that make this site possible. You can't imagine how it has helped my ministry and me personally. This web page fills me with new energy to keep working in the ministry, especially when I find that there are others who have the same hunger and thirst to work with teens. I love you all.

I just finished taking "Relationship: The Essence of Ministry." It is the first online course I've taken and it was marvelous. I can tell that it's going to help me a lot in my work with teens, especially considering that I've never had any training. After taking this course I realize I've been making some mistakes, but now, at least I know how to correct them and accomplish the goal that I have in my heart...Thanks for this great help that you provide for teachers. May God continue to bless you in the lovely ministry.

I want to thank you from the bottom of my heart for the work and hours of dedication you put into maintaining such an EXCELLENTE website. I'm a schoolteacher and your website has been a blessing in my life and in the lives of hundreds of children and young adults in Chile with its dead-on illustrations, articles, and activities for those of us who make the sacrifice to be a part of this marvelous ministry. In this world where everything is materialism and marketing, efficient and altruistic efforts like yours are appreciated. You bless us unselfishly.

Your site is the best one I've visited on the Internet in every respect. I just finished your online course "Developing a Team of Leaders" – it's perfect! Congratulations – I can't wait to take the next one. Gabriela Deguer - Canada

My name is Pabel Bermúdez Garro, I'm a pastor and have recently planted a new church. This fact basically obligates me to visit your site. Honestly, it has not only been a help but more importantly a timely help to our growth [as a church] and something that we had lacked – quality resources for developing God's vision in our context. Thanks to all who made this website what it is today.

This web page is one of the best tools I've come across for my own spiritual life as well as for the development of my group of youth leaders. Four months ago I felt beaten down and frustrated both spiritually and personally due to the lack of resources and support in my attempt to improve our youth group. Through ParaLideres.org I found help – good advice and lots of resources – from other Christians. I hope that you never stop helping us, especially since many of our churches don't make the effort to support their youth leaders. As a result of your ministry I am able to find immediate help for my personal and ministerial life. Eva Villalobos (Honduras)

This is all I have to say: Blessed be the day I found this website. All that is published on it has been a huge help. I have put into practice what I've learned and I've seen positive results in my ministry. It's wonderful that such a site exists because it provides exactly what us youth leaders need. Send greetings to all those who make this online ministry possible. Thank you for the investment of time, money, and effort...those being the essential ingredients for any ministry like yours; one whose defining quality is "QUALITY." Adios, Abigail Rojas
